Educational Planning Check-List

8th Grade	9 th Grade	10 th Grade	11 th Grade
Advising	Advising & Record-keeping	Advising & Record-keeping	Advising & Record-keeping
☐ Collect transcripts and	☐ Attend orientation and	☐ Meet with your high school	☐ Meet with your high school submit to new school, if	meet with your high school	counselor each semester and	counselor each semester and make changing schools.	counselor each semester.	make sure you are satisfying	sure you are satisfying high school
☐ Meet with your guidance	☐ Create a file for keeping	high school graduation and	graduation and college entrance counselor to discuss high	track of everything related	college entrance	requirements.
school options.	to education and career:	requirements.	☐ Check your transcript at the end of ☐ Visit a college campus or	include your grade reports,	☐ Visit a college campus or	the year to make sure it is correct.
attend a college fair.	honors or awards you	attend a college fair.	☐ Attend college fairs, college tours,
Coursework	receive and a record of	Coursework	and college planning sessions.
☐ Learn about A-G college	extracurricular activities. If	☐ Take the required college	Coursework prep requirements by	you transfer to a new	prep. "a-g" coursework.	☐ Register for AP (Advanced visiting	school, get a copy of your	☐ Register for AP (Advanced	Placement) and honors courses for blogs.calstate.edu/college	school record and keep it in this file.	Placement) and honors	12th grade, if available.
/students and meet with a	☐ Visit a college campus or	courses for 11th grade, if available.	☐ Select courses for your senior year guidance counselor to pick your courses for 9 th	attend a college fair.	□ Enroll in academic	that strengthen your academic record
grade.	Coursework	enrichment programs like	and ensure that you meet the "a-g" requirements.
☐ Enroll in academic	☐ Take the required college	AVID, EAOP, Puente,	☐ Enroll in academic enrichment enrichment programs like	preparatory "a-g"	MESA or Upward Bound.	programs like AVID, EAOP, Puente,
AVID, MESA, or Bruin	coursework. Learn more	☐ Request tutoring, as needed.	MESA or Upward Bound.
Guardian Scholars	about what classes to take	Testing	☐ Request tutoring, as needed.
Academy to help you	by visiting	☐ October: Register for the	Testing prepare for college.	blogs.calstate.edu/college/s	PSAT, a practice exam for	☐ If you plan to attend a CSU or UC, ☐ Request tutoring, as	tudents.	the SAT, if you plan to	register for the ACT or the SAT two needed.	☐ Register for AP (Advanced	attend a CSU or UC. Ask a	months before the exam. If you take Testing	Placement) and honors	counselor for a fee waiver.	the exam in the spring or summer, ☐ Optional: Take the 8th	courses for 10th grade, if	\Box Or, take the 10 th grade ACT	you will get results in time to see if grade ACT Aspire	available.	Aspire assessment test, if	you need to retake it in the fall of 12 th assessment test (formerly	☐ Enroll in academic	you plan to attend a CSU or	grade. Ask for a fee waiver code.
ACT Explore and ACT	enrichment programs like	UC. Ask a school counselor	☐ March: Register to take the AP exam
Plan) to help you gauge	AVID, EAOP, Puente,	for a fee waiver.	in the spring, if applicable. Ask a progress towards college	MESA or Upward Bound	☐ March: Register to take the	counselor about a fee waiver.
preparedness. Ask your	to help you prepare for	AP exam in the spring, if	☐ When you take your state CAASPP school counselor for a	college.	applicable. Ask a counselor	exam, mark the release button at the fee waiver.	☐ Request tutoring, as	about a fee waiver.	end of each exam to ensure that the Career Planning	needed.	Career Planning	CSU campus(es) you apply to receive ☐ Participate in career awareness activities and	Testing ☐ Optional: Take the 9 th	☐ Prepare for and participate	your EAP (Early Assessment check-out these websites:	grade ACT Aspire	in a summer internship	Program) results.
- cccmypath.org	assessment test.	and/or community project.	Career Planning
- salarysurfer.ccco.edu	Career Planning	☐ Explore college pathways for careers that interest you.	☐ Prepare for and participate in a
- cacareerzone.com	☐ Participate in a community	_	summer internship or work experience.
- careered.ccco.edu/	project.	☐ Take or update your career interest and aptitude	☐ Explore college pathways for careers
explore-careers	☐ Participate in career	assessment.	that interest you.
DCFS Resources	awareness activities and	DCFS Resources	☐ Take or update your career interest
☐ Use the TILP to create	check-out helpful websites.	☐ Use the TILP to create	and aptitude assessment.
college and career goals	☐ Take or update you career	college and career goals.	☐ Participate in career awareness,
(age 14 +).	interest and aptitude	☐ Use the CFT to support	exploration and preparation
☐ Use the CFT to support	assessment.	college and career goals.	activities.
college and career goals.	DCFS Resources	☐ Participate in Teen Club.	DCFS Resources ☐ Connect with your local	☐ Use the TILP to create	☐ Refer to ILP or ITSP (ages	☐ Use the TILP to create college and ILP Teen Club (age 14+)	college and career goals	16-21).	career goals.
to hear from Career	(age 14 +).	☐ Connect with ILP about	☐ Use the CFT to support college and speakers.	☐ Use the CFT to support	college tours or activities.	career goals.
	college and career goals.	☐ Sign up for ILP	☐ Participate in Teen Club.
	☐ Participate in Teen Club.	alerts/emails.	☐ Refer to ILP or ITSP (ages 16-21).
	☐ Sign up for ILP		☐ Connect with ILP about college tours
	alerts/emails.		or activities.
			☐ Sign up for ILP alerts/emails.

Educational Planning Check-List

Advising & Record Acaping	12th C. J. F. H.C. d. 12th C. J. C. d. d.
Review courses with your school counselor to make sure you are meeting his shool graduation and entrance requirements for the colleges that interest you.	12 th Grade- Fall Semester	12 th Grade – Spring Semester are meeting high school graduation and entrance requirements for the college that interest you. Asterd college fairs and college planning sessions. Visit college campuses that are a good match with your ceredentials and career interests. Courseword: Conspect all final "ag" course requirements. Be sure to take an English and math course to keep your skills strong for your first year in college. Finol in college preparation programs like AVID, EAOP, Paene, the are Testing. If you plan to attend a CSU or UC, register for the October ACT or SAT, and then register for the December ACT or SAT, and then register for the December ACT or SAT, and then register for the December ACT or SAT, and then register for the December ACT or SAT, and then register for the December ACT or SAT, and then register for the December ACT or SAT if you are retaking the exam. Applying to College Contact the foster youth liaison at the college of your choice to find out about your eligibility for foster youth and EOPS (Extended Opportunity Programs) support and important dates and application procedures. For info, visit student, accollege, pathways org/find-campus-support-programs. Lif you haven't already, get an email address for yourself that is strictly for college and financial aid application information. If you plan to attend CSU or UC: Write a personal essay for college and sholarship application. If you regularly updated your High School Counter, your course information will be automatically transferred to your application. Application and reduced his size, and you application in requestion to the words of the California Derma Act Application at demandation is correct. Save one copy for yourself, Apply for one household, and the properties of the California Derma Act Application at commendation be written by November 15 for your EOP and scholarship applications. Application at requestion of the California Derma Act Application at demandation and properties of the properties of the California Derma Act Application at demanda Mett with your college consuled to create your education plan.
Usite college campuses that are a good match with your credentials and career interests. Courseword: Compete all final "a-g" course requirements. Be sure to take an English and match course to keep your skills strong for your first year in college. Earoll in college preparation programs like AVID. EAOP, Puente, Mess or Upward Bound. Request trottering, as needed. Required the preparation programs like AVID. EAOP, Puente, Mess or Upward Bound. If you plan to attend a CSU or UC, register for the October ACT or SAT, and then register for the December ACT or SAT, if you are retaking the exam. Applying to College Contact the foster youth hiasion at the college of your choice to find our about pour eligibility for foster youth and EOPS (Extended Opportunity Programs & Services) or EOP (Educational Opportunity Programs services) or EOP (Educational Opportunity Programs) support and important dates and application procedures. For info, visit student, eacollegepathways, org/find-campus-support-programs. If you haven't already, get an email address for yourself that is strictly for college and financial aid application information. If you plan to attend CSU or UC: Write a personal essay for college admission. The essay will be used to complete applications for CSU EOP, UC and scholarships, Get coaching and feedback from your course information will be automatically tendered to your application. If you regularly updated your High School Planner, your course information will be automatically tendered to your application. If you regularly updated your financial Ask your high school counselor to send your final high school credentials and career interest. Coursework
courseword. Complete all final "n-g" course requirements. Be sure to take an English and math course to keep your skills strong for your first year in college. Euroli in college preparation programs like AVID. EAOP, Paente, Mesa or Upward Bound. Request tutoring, as needed. Testing If you plan to attend a CSU or UC, register for the October ACT or SAT, and then register for the December ACT or SAT if you pare to attend a CSU or UC, register for the December ACT or SAT if you pare retaking the exam. Applying to College Contact the foster youth liaison at the college of your choice to find out about your eligibility for foster youth and EOPS (Extended Opportunity Programs & Services) or EOP (Educational Opportunity Programs & Support programs, student, cacollegepoaltways.org/find-campus-support-programs, student, cacollegepoaltways.org/find-campus-support-programs, student, cacollegepoaltways.org/find-campus-support-programs, student, cacollegepoaltways.org/find-campus-support-programs, student, cacollegepoaltways.org/find-campus-support-programs, strong and cachast find out about portion to the college of the California Dream Act Application and ream. Sea. ca., gov by March 2"do receive the maximum award to a the California Dream Act Application and ream. Sea. ca., gov by March 2"do receive the maximum award to complete applications for CSU EOP, UC and Scholarships, Get coaching and feedback from your counselors. Request at least 3 letters of recommendation be written by November 15 for your EOP and Scholarships, Get coaching and feedback from your counselors. Apply for CSU and Jour UC applications. Application application in formation. Apply for an action of the propagation of the California Dream Act Application and recampus-support programs with the California Dream Act Application and recampus-support programs and schoolarships. Because and the California Dream Act Application and recampus and feedback from your counselors. Request at least 3 letters of recommendation be written by November 15 for your EOP		•
Complete all final "a-g" course requirements. Be sure to take an English and math course to keep your skills strong for your lirst year in college. Earoll in college preparation programs like AVID. EAOP, Puente, Mesa or Upward Bound. Request tutoring, as needed. Testing Image: Request at the AP exam(s). Have the scores sent to the schools where you are applying. Ask for a few actives. It is shools where you are applying, Ask for a few actives. It is shools where you are applying, Ask for a few actives. It is shools where you are applying, Ask for a few actives. It is shools where you are applying, Ask for a few actives. It is shools where you are applying, Ask for a few actives. It is shools where you are applying, Ask for a few actives. It is shools where you are applying, Ask for a few actives. It is shools where you are applying, Ask for a few actives. It is shools where you are applying, Ask for a few actives. It is shools where you are applying, Ask for a few actives. It is shools where you are applying, Ask for a few actives. If you have it is a counter. It is a few and a community college, and the active and active and active and active for a plant to a college of your choice to find out about the steps required at the college pare apply for to stery youth, and the steps required and active and acti
Complete all final "ag" course requirements. Be sure to take an English and math course to keep your skills strong for your list year in college. In other college preparation programs like AVID, EAOP, Puente, Mess or Upward Bound. Request tutoring, as needed. Testing		1 an English and math course to keep your skills strong for your first year in college. Enroll in college preparation programs like AVID, EAOP, Puente, Mesa or Upward Bound. Request tutoring, as needed. Testing If you plan to attend a CSU or UC, register for the October ACT or SAT, and then register for the December ACT or SAT in the English of Tables and Second Language (ESL), to determine appropriate placement into does subject. Campuses any soy of high school course and second Language (ESL), to determine appropriate placement into the top and bendarish and EOPS (GPA, or a placement test to determine you up the find a summer Early Start Program. Applying to Ast for a Schedular and EOPS (GPA, or a placement test to determine a you on high school course in the Lo first year in college. Enroll in college preparation programs like AVID, EAOP, Puente, Mesu or Upward Bound. Request tutoring, as needed. Testing If you plan to attend a CSU or UC, register for the October ACT or SAT, and then register for the December ACT or SAT if you are retaking the exam. Applying to College Contact the foster youth liaison at the college of your choice to find out about your eligibility for foster youth and EOPS (Extended Opportunity Programs) support and important dates and application procedures. For info, visit student, cacollegepathways.org/find-campus-support-programs. If you plan to attend a CSU or UC: Write a personal essay for college and inancial aid application information. If you plan to attend CSU or UC Write a personal essay for college admission. The essay will be used to complete applications for CSU POP, UC and scholarships. Cet coaching and feedback from your counselors. Request a least 3 letters of recommendation be written by November 15 for your EOP and scholarship applications. Apply to CSU (calstate eaklayply) and/or UC (university of califormia edu/admissions). Have someone proofread your application. Application deadine is November 30, unless otherwise noted. For foster youth, up to four CSU and four UC applications are free. Apply for college campus that you are applying to and place your name on the waiting, if needed. As a foster youth, you are religible for priority access to no-campus housing. Check about the payments and deposits for college. Some college repuration. Apply for the EOP (Educational Opportunity Program) when you submit your CSU or UC application. Deep and the fill of the EOP (Educational Opportunity Program) when you submit your CSU or UC application. Poers and the fill of the EOP (Educational Opportunity Program) when you submit your CSU or UC application. Poers and the fill of the EOP (Educational Opportunity Program) when you submit your CSU or UC application. Comment with ILP about college for priority registration as a corrent or t Enroll in college preparation programs like AVID, EAOP, Puente, Mesa or Upward Bound. Request tutoring, as needed. Testing If you plan to attend a CSU or UC, register for the October ACT or SAT, and then register for the December ACT or SAT, and then register for poster youth and scale and application at the college of your plan to attend a SCU, the EAP test you took in 11st grade will determine whether you need to a summer Early Start Progr
Mesa or Upward Bound. Request tutoring, as needed. Testing If you plan to attend a CSU or UC, register for the October ACT or SAT, and then register for the December ACT or SAT if you are retaking the exam. Applying to College Contact the foster youth liaison at the college of your choice to find out about your eligibility for foster youth and EOPS (Extended Opportunity Programs) support and important dates and application procedures. For info, visit student.cacollegepathways.org/find-campus-support-programs. If you plan to attend CSU or UC: Write a personal essay for college admission. The essay will be used to complete applications for CSU EOP, UC and scholarships. Get coaching and feedback from your counselors. Request a least 3 letters of recommendation be written by November 15 for your EOP and scholarship application. Apply to CSU (calstate-edu/apply) and/or UC (universityoficaliformia edu/admissions). Have someone proofread your application. Application or regularly updated your High School Planner, your course information will be automatically transferred to your application. Application or regularly updated your High School Planner, your course information will be automatically transferred to your application. Application or each college campus that you are applying to and place your name on the waitlist, if needed. As a foster youth, up to four CSU and four UC applications are free. Have your transcripts sent to requesting colleges. Make sure all the information is correct. Save one copy for yourself. To reach college campus that you are applying to and place your name on the waitlist, if needed. As a foster youth, up to four experience application. Apply for the EOP (Educational Opportunity Program) when you submit your CSU or UC applications. Apply for the EOP (Educational Opportunity Program) when you submit your CSU or UC application. Apply for the EOP (Educational Opportunity Program) when you submit your CSU or UC application. Per an application and for the college and place your name
Exeting If you plan to attend a CSU or UC, register for the October ACT or SAT, and then register for the December ACT or SAT if you are retaking the exam. Applying to College Contact the foster youth liaison at the college of your choice to find out about your eligibility for foster youth and EOPS (Extended Opportunity Programs) support and important dates and application procedures. For info, visit student.cacollegeapthways.org/find-campus-support-programs. If you plan to attend CSU or UC: Write a personal essay for college admission. The essay will be used to complete applications for CSU EOP, UC and scholarships. Get coaching and feedback from your counselors. Request at least 3 letters of recommendation be written by November 15 for your EOP and scholarship applications. Apply to CSU (calstate.edu/apply) andfor UC (universityofcalifornia.edu/admissions). Have someone proofread your application. If you regulation, Application deadline is November 30, unless otherwise noted. For foster youth, up to four CSU and four UC application Application and processing CSU. Apply for abclosing in deadback is November 30, unless otherwise noted. For foster youth, up to four CSU and four UC application to request upon the waitlist, if needed. As a foster youth, up to four CSU and four UC application to request upon the waitlist, if needed. As a foster youth, up to four CSU and four UC application to request upon the waitlist, if needed. As a foster youth, you have priority access to on-campus housing. Check about the payments and deposits for college. Some colleges require an upfront deposit for on-campus housing down application to requesting colleges. Some colleges require an upfront deposit for on-campus housing down application to requesting colleges. Some colleges require an upfront deposit for on-campus housing down application to request upon the very college and a foster youth support programs. Unitive free ampliance and an application as a current of ormer foster youth and follow the required steps. See t
Testing
If you plan to attend a CSU or UC, register for the October ACT or SAT, and then register for the December ACT or SAT if you are retaking the exam.
ACT or SAT, and then register for the December ACT or SAT if you are retaking the exam. Applying to College Contact the foster youth liaison at the college of your choice to find out about your eligibility for foster youth and EOPS (Extended Opportunity Programs & Services) or EOP (Educational Opportunity Programs) support and important dates and application procedures. For info, visit student cacollege pathways.org/find-campus-support-programs. If you plan to attend a CSU or UC: Write a personal essay for college admission. The essay will be used to complete applications for CSU EOP, UC and scholarships. Get coaching and feedback from your counselors. Request at least 3 letters of recommendation be written by November 15 for your EOP and scholarship applications. Apply to CSU (calstate.edu/apply) and/or UC (universityofcalifornia.edu/admissions). Have someone proofread your application. Application deadline is November 30, unless otherwise noted. For foster youth, up to four CSU and four UC applications are free. Have your transcripts sent to requesting colleges. Make sure all the information is correct. Save one copy for yourself. Apply for on-campus housing "domrs" or "residence halls") for each college campus that you are applying to and place your nample services on the payments and deposits for on-campus housing. Check about the payments and deposits for on-campus housing and only accept checks or credit cards. Ask for assistance to pay these, if needed. Apply for the EOP (Educational Opportunity Program) when you submit your CSU or UC application. Connect with ILP about college for priority registration as a foster youth submit pour activities. Connect with ILP about college for priority registration as a foster youth submit for more information. If you plan to attend a CSU, the EOP (Educational Opportunity Program) when you submit your CSU or UC application. Connect with ILP about college tours or activities.
if you are retaking the exam. Applying to College Contact the foster youth liaison at the college of your choice to find out about your eligibility for foster youth and EOPS (Extended Opportunity Programs) support and important dates and application procedures. For info, visit student cacollegepathways.org/find-campus-support-programs. If you plan to attend CSU or UC: Write a personal essay for college admission. The essay will be used to complete applications for CSU EOP, UC and scholarships. Get coaching and feedback from your counselors. Request at least 3 letters of recommendation be written by November 15 for your EOP and scholarship applications. Apply for deuding application. Application and promendation will be automatically transferred to your application. Application deadline is November 30, unless otherwise noted. For foster youth, you may have priority access to on-campus housing. Apply for Government of the program of the properties of the properties of the program on the waitlist, if needed. As a foster youth, you may have priority access to on-campus housing. Check about the payments and deposits for college. Some colleges require an upfront deposit for on-campus housing and only accept checks or credit cards. Ask for assistance to pay these, if needed. Apply for defined a CSU, the EAP test you took in 11th EAP to receive the maximum while assisted and EOPS (at the Financial Aid Guide for Catifornia Foster Youth at http://www.jbaforyouth.org/ca-fy-financial-aid-guide/. Apply for financial aid by completing the FAFSA at fafsa.gov or the California Dram Act Applaciation at dramscac.ca.gov ov Werify that your high school sent your factify-financial aid by completing the FAFSA at fafsa.gov or the California Dram Act Applaciation at dramscac.ca.gov for up to receive the maximum award possible. Eligible foster youth as the payment and according play and for Evolution of the California Student at chafe case.ca.gov for up to $5,000. Complete any financial aid by completing the FAFSA at Applying to College Contact the foster youth liaison at the college of your choice to find out about your eligibility for foster youth and EOPS (Extended Opportunity Programs & Services) or EOP (Educational Opportunity Programs were programs. Get the Financial Aid Guide for California Foster Youth at http://www.jbsforyouth.org/ca-fy-financial-aid-guide/. Applying for Financial Aid Guide for California Foster Youth at http://www.jbsforyouth.org/ca-fy-financial-aid-guide/. Apply in the college and financial aid application information. You plan to attend CSU or UC: Write a personal essay for college admission. The essay will be used to complete applications for CSU EOP, UC and scholarships. Get coaching and feedback from your counselors. Apply to CSU calstate cedu/apply) and/or UC (university/ofcalifornia-edu/damissions). Have someone proofread your application. If you regularly updated your High School Planner, your course information will be automatically transferred to your application. Application deadline is November 30, unless otherwise noted. For foster youth, you may have priority access to on-campus housing. Check about the payments and deposits for college. Some colleges require an upfront deposit for on-campus housing. Check about the payments and deposits for college. Some colleges require an upfront deposit for on-campus housing. Check about the payments and deposits for college. Some colleges require an upfront deposit for on-campus housing. Check about the payments and deposits for college. Some colleges require an upfront deposit for on-campus housing. Check about the payments and deposits for college. Some colleges require an upfront deposit for on-campus housing. Check about the payments and deposits for college. Some colleges require an upfront deposit for on-campus housing. Check about the payments and deposits for college. Some colleges require an upfront deposit for on-campus housing. Check about the payments and deposits for coll
□ Contact the foster youth liaison at the college of your choice to find out about your eligibility for foster youth and EOPS (Extended Opportunity Programs & Services) or EOP (Educational Opportunity Programs) support and important dates and application procedures. For info, visit student.cacollegepathways.org/find-campus-support-programs. □ If you haven't already, get an email address for yourself that is strictly for college and financial aid application information. If you plan to attend CSU or UC: □ Write a personal essay for college admission. The essay will be used to complete applications for CSU EOP, UC and scholarships. Get coaching and feedback from your counselors. □ Request at least 3 letters of recommendation be written by November 15 for your EOP and scholarship applications. Apply to CSU (calstate edu/apply) and/or UC (universityofcalifornia.edu/admissions). Have someone proofread your application. Application will be automatically transferred to your application. Application will be automatically transferred to your application. Application deadline is November 30, unless otherwise noted. For foster youth, up to four CSU and four UC applications are free. □ Have your transcripts sent to requesting colleges. Make sure all the information is correct. Save one copy for yourself. □ Apply for on-campus housing ("dorms" or "residence halls") for each college campus that you are applying to and place your name on the waitlist, if needed. As a foster youth, you may have priority access to on-campus housing. □ Check about the payments and deposits for college. Some colleges require an upfront deposit for on-campus housing and only accept checks or credit cards. Ask for assistance to pay these, if needed. □ Apply for the EOP (Educational Opportunity Program) when you submit your CSU or UC application. □ Compete any financial aid Glide for California Ended. □ Apply for the EOP (Educational Opportunity Program) when you submit your CSU or UC application. □ Compete the face for the time of registration. □	1 * find out about your eligibility for foster youth and EOPS (Extended Opportunity Programs & Services) or EOP (Educational Opportunity Programs see Services) or EOP (Educational Opportunity Programs) support and important dates and application procedures. For info, visit student.cacollegepathways.org/find-campus-support-programs. If you haven't already, get an email address for yourself that is strictly for college and financial aid application information. If you plan to attend CSU or UC:
Get the Financial Aid Guide for California Foster Youth at http://www.jbaforyouth.org/ca-fy-financial-aid-guide/. Get the Financial Aid Guide for California Foster Youth at http://www.jbaforyouth.org/ca-fy-financial-aid-guide/. Apply for financial aid youth.org/ca-fy-financial-aid-guide/. Apply for the Chafee Grant at chafee.csac.ca.gov for up to $5,000. Create a Webgrants account at mygrantinfo.csac.ca.gov. Verify that your high school sent your Cal Grant GPA Verification from to California Student Aid Commission (CSAC). Apply for additional private scholarships at california other.org/ca-fy-financial-aid-guide/. Apply for the Chafee Grant at chafee.csac.ca.gov for up to $5,000. Verify that your high school sent your Cal Grant GPA Verification form to California Student Aid Commission (CSAC). Apply for the Chafee Grant at chafee.csac.ca.gov. Verify that your high school sent your Cal Grant GPA Verification form to California Student Aid Commission (CSAC). Apply for the Chafee Grant at chafee.csac.ca.gov for up to $5,000. Apply for the Chafee Grant at chafee.csac.ca.gov for up to $5,000. Apply for de Chafee Grant at chafee.csac.ca.gov for up to $5,000. Apply for de Cal Geducational Opportunity Programs) support and important dates and application procedures. For info, visit student.cacollegepathways.org/find-campus-support-programs. dyou haven't already, get an email address for yourself that is strictly for college and financial aid application information.
dates and application procedures. For info, visit student.cacollegepathways.org/find-campus-support-programs. If you haven't already, get an email address for yourself that is strictly for college and financial aid application information. If you plan to attend CSU or UC: Write a personal essay for college admission. The essay will be used to complete applications for CSU EOP, UC and scholarships. Get coaching and feedback from your counselors. Apply to for the Chafee Grant at chafee.csac.ca.gov for up to $5,000. Request at least 3 letters of recommendation be written by November 15 for your EOP and scholarship applications. Apply to CSU (calstate.edu/apply) and/or UC (universityofcalifornia.edu/admissions). Have someone proofread your application. If you regularly updated your High School Planner, your course information will be automatically transferred to your application. Application deadline is November 30, unless otherwise noted. For foster youth, up to four CSU and four UC applications are free. Apply for on-campus housing colleges. Make sure all the information is correct. Save one copy for yourself. Apply for on-campus housing colleges amply for college campus that you are applying to and place your name on the waitlist, if needed. As a foster youth, you may have priority access to on-campus housing. Check about the payments and deposits for college. Some colleges require an upfront deposit for on-campus housing and only accept checks or credit cards. Ask for assistance to pay these, if needed. Apply for the EOP (Educational Opportunity Program) when you submit your CSU or UC application. Determine if you are eligible for priority registration as a current or former foster youth and follow the required steps. See the website of the school you plan to attend a CSU or UC: Pay a nonrefundable deposit for freshmen tuition to the college you plan to attend, if required, to hold your spot. Determine if you are eligible for priority registration as a foster youth, ask the school you plan to attend fo student.cacollegepathways.org/find-campus-support-programs. If you haven't already, get an email address for yourself that is strictly for college and financial aid application information. If you plan to attend CSU or UC: Write a personal essay for college admission. The essay will be used to complete applications for CSU EOP, UC and scholarships. Get coaching and feedback from your counselors. Request at least 3 letters of recommendation be written by November 15 for your EOP and scholarship applications. Apply to CSU (calstate.edu/apply) and/or UC (universityofcalifornia.edu/admissions). Have someone proofread your application. If you regularly updated your High School Planner, your course information will be automatically transferred to your application. Application deadline is November 30, unless otherwise noted. For foster youth, up to four CSU and four UC applications are free. Have your transcripts sent to requesting colleges. Make sure althe information is correct. Save one copy for yourself. Apply for on-campus housing ("dorms" or "residence halls") for each college campus that you are applying to and place your name on the waitlist, if needed. As a foster youth, you may have priority access to on-campus housing. Check about the payments and deposit for on-campus housing and only accept checks or credit cards. Ask for assistance to pay these, if needed. Apply for the EOP (Educational Opportunity Program) when you submit your CSU or UC application. DEFS Resources Use the TILP to create college and career goals.
If you haven't already, get an email address for yourself that is strictly for college and financial aid application information. If you plan to attend CSU or UC: Write a personal essay for college admission. The essay will be used to complete applications for CSU EOP, UC and scholarships. Get coaching and feedback from your counselors. Request at least 3 letters of recommendation be written by November 15 for your EOP and scholarship applications. Apply to CSU (calstate.edu/apply) and/or UC (universityofcalifornia.edu/admissions). Have someone proofread your application. Application deadline is November 30, unless otherwise noted. For foster youth, up to four CSU and four UC applications are free. Have your transcripts sent to requesting colleges. Make sure all the information is correct. Save one copy for yourself. Apply for on-campus housing ("dorms" or "residence halls") for each college campus that you are applying to and place your name on the waitlist, if needed. As a foster youth, you may have priority access to on-campus housing. Check about the payments and deposits for college. Some colleges require an upfront deposit for on-campus housing and only accept checks or credit cards. Ask for assistance to pay these, if needed. Apply for the Chafee Grant at chafee.csac.ca.gov for up to $5,000. Create a Webgrants account at mygrantifo.csac.ca.gov. Verify that your high school sent your Cal Grant GPA strictly for college and financial aid application information. If you plan to attend CSU or UC: Write a personal essay for college admission. The essay will be used to complete applications for CSU EOP, UC and scholarships. Get coaching and feedback from your counselors. Request at least 3 letters of recommendation be written by November 15 for your EOP and scholarship applications. Apply to CSU (calstate.edu/apply) and/or UC (universityofealifornia.edu/admissions). Have someone proofread your application. Application deadline is November 30, unless otherwise noted. For foster youth, up to four CSU and four UC application. Application deadline is November 30, unless otherwise noted. For foster youth, up to four CSU and four UC applications are free. Have your transcripts sent to requesting colleges. Make sure all the information is correct. Save one copy for yourself. Apply for on-campus housing ("dorms" or "residence halls") for each college campus that you are applying to and place your name on the waitlist, if needed. As a foster youth, you may have priority access to on-campus housing only accept checks or credit cards. Ask for assistance to pay these, if needed. Apply for the CDA (Educational Opportunity Program) when you submit your CSU or UC application. DCFS Resources Wriff at your high school sent your Cal Grant GPA Verification form to California Student Aid Commission (CSAC). Apply for additional private scholarships at california Student Aid Commission (CSAC). Apply for additional private scholarships at california Student Aid Commission (CSAC). Apply for additional private scholarships at california Student Aid Commission (CSAC). Apply for additional private scholarships at california Student Aid Commission (CSAC). Apply for additional private scholarships at california Student Aid Commission (CSAC). Complete any financial aid verification steps, if needed. Determine if the college has a foster youth support program at student. accollegepathways.org/find-campus-support-programs. U	☐ If you haven't already, get an email address for yourself that is
If you plan to attend CSU or UC: Write a personal essay for college admission. The essay will be used to complete applications for CSU EOP, UC and scholarships, Get coaching and feedback from your counselors. Request at least 3 letters of recommendation be written by November 15 for your EOP and scholarship applications. Apply to CSU (calstate.edu/apply) and/or UC (universityofcalifornia.edu/admissions). Have someone proofread your application. If you regularly updated your High School Planner, your course information will be automatically transferred to your application. Application deadline is November 30, unless otherwise noted. For foster youth, up to four CSU and four UC applications are free. Have your transcripts sent to requesting colleges. Make sure alt the information is correct. Save one copy for yourself. Apply for on-campus housing ("dorms" or "residence halls") for each college campus that you are applying to and place your name on the waitlist, if needed. As a foster youth, you may have priority access to on-campus housing. Check about the payments and deposits for college. Some colleges require an upfront deposit for on-campus housing and only accept checks or credit cards. Ask for assistance to pay these, if needed. Apply for the EOp (Educational Opportunity Program) when you submit your CSU or UC application. DCFS Resources Use the TILP to create college and career goals. Square and college to propriority registration to college. Connect with ILP about college tours or activities. Request a 90-Day Transition Plan to prepare for the transition to college.
Write a personal essay for college admission. The essay will be used to complete applications for CSU EOP, UC and scholarships. Get coaching and feedback from your counselors. Request at least 3 letters of recommendation be written by November 15 for your EOP and scholarship applications. Apply to CSU (calstate.edu/apply) and/or UC (universityofcalifornia.edu/admissions). Have someone proofread your application. If you regularly updated your High School Planner, your course information will be automatically transferred to your application. Application deadline is November 30, unless otherwise noted. For foster youth, up to four CSU and four UC applications are free. Have your transcripts sent to requesting colleges. Make sure all the information is correct. Save one copy for yourself. Apply for on-campus housing ("dorms" or "residence halls") for each college campus that you are applying to and place your name on the waitlist, if needed. As a foster youth, you may have priority access to on-campus housing. Check about the payments and deposit for on-campus housing and only accept checks or credit cards. Ask for assistance to pay these, if needed. Apply for the EOP (Educational Opportunity Program) when you submit your CSU or UC application. DCFS Resources
Write a personal essay for college admission. The essay will be used to complete applications for CSU EOP, UC and scholarships. Get coaching and feedback from your counselors. Request at least 3 letters of recommendation be written by November 15 for your EOP and scholarship applications. Apply to CSU (calstate.edu/apply) and/or UC (universityofcalifornia.edu/admissions). Have someone proofread your application. If you regularly updated your High School Planner, your course information will be automatically transferred to your application. Application deadline is November 30, unless otherwise noted. For foster youth, up to four CSU and four UC applications are free. Have your transcripts sent to requesting colleges. Make sure all the information is correct. Save one copy for yourself. Apply for on-campus housing ("dorms" or "residence halls") for each college campus that you are applying to and place your name on the waitlist, if needed. As a foster youth, you may have priority access to on-campus housing. Check about the payments and deposits for college. Some colleges require an upfront deposit for on-campus housing and only accept checks or credit cards. Ask for assistance to pay these, if needed. Apply for the EOP (Educational Opportunity Program) when you submit your CSU or UC application.	If you plan to attend CSU or UC:
Secondarships. Get coaching and feedback from your counselors. Request at least 3 letters of recommendation be written by November 15 for your EOP and scholarship applications. Apply to CSU (calstate.edu/apply) and/or UC (universityofcalifornia.edu/admissions). Have someone proofread your application. If you regularly updated your High School Planner, your course information will be automatically transferred to your application. Application deadline is November 30, unless otherwise noted. For foster youth, up to four CSU and four UC applications are free. Have your transcripts sent to requesting colleges. Make sure all the information is correct. Save one copy for yourself. Apply for on-campus housing ("dorms" or "residence halls") for each college campus that you are applying to and place your name on the waitlist, if needed. As a foster youth, you may have priority access to on-campus housing . Check about the payments and deposits for college. Some colleges require an upfront deposit for on-campus housing and only accept checks or credit cards. Ask for assistance to pay these, if needed. Apply for the EOP (Educational Opportunity Program) when you submit your CSU or UC application. DCFS Resources	☐ Write a personal essay for college admission. The essay will be scholarships. Get coaching and feedback from your counselors. Request at least 3 letters of recommendation be written by November 15 for your EOP and scholarship applications. Apply to CSU (calstate.edu/apply) and/or UC (universityofcalifornia.edu/admissions). Have someone proofread your application. If you regularly updated your High School Planner, your course information will be automatically transferred to your application. Application deadline is November 30, unless otherwise noted. For foster youth, up to four CSU and four UC applications are free. Have your transcripts sent to requesting colleges. Make sure all the information is correct. Save one copy for yourself. Apply for on-campus housing ("dorms" or "residence halls") for each college campus that you are applying to and place your name on the waitlist, if needed. As a foster youth, you may have priority access to on-campus housing. Check about the payments and deposits for college. Some colleges require an upfront deposit for on-campus housing and only accept checks or credit cards. Ask for assistance to pay these, if needed. Apply for the EOP (Educational Opportunity Program) when you submit your CSU or UC application. DCFS Resources Use the TILP to create college and career goals. Verification form to Califormia Student Aid Commission (CSAC). Apply for additional private scholarships at californiacolleges. du. Complete any financial aid verification steps, if needed. Accessing Support Programs If attending a community college, apply for EOPS and NextUp (also known as CAFYES & only available at certain colleges.) Determine if the college has a foster youth sudent.cacollegepathways.org/find-campus-support-program at student.cacollegepathways.org/find-campus-support-programs. Utilize free campus resources like tutoring, disability services, mental health counseling, and/or resources for parenting youth. Enrollment and Fees If you plan to attend a CSU or UC: Pay a nonrefundable deposit for freshmen tuition to the college you plan to	used to complete applications for CSU EOP, UC and
Apply to CSU (calstate.edu/apply) and/or UC (universityofcalifornia.edu/admissions). Have someone proofread your application. If you regularly updated your High School Planner, your course information will be automatically transferred to your application. Application deadline is November 30, unless otherwise noted. For foster youth, up to four CSU and four UC applications are free. Have your transcripts sent to requesting colleges. Make sure all the information is correct. Save one copy for yourself. Apply for on-campus housing ("dorms" or "residence halls") for each college campus that you are applying to and place your name on the waitlist, if needed. As a foster youth, you may have priority access to on-campus housing. Complete any financial aid verification steps, if needed. Accessing Support Programs I attending a community college, apply for EOPS and NextUp (also known as CAFYES & only available at certain colleges). Determine if the college has a foster youth support program at student.cacollegepathways.org/find-campus-support-programs. Utilize free campus resources like tutoring, disability services, mental health counseling, and/or resources for parenting youth. Enrollment and Fees If you plan to attend a community college: Determine if you are eligible for priority registration as a current or former foster youth and follow the required steps. See the website of the school you plan to attend for more information. Pay enrollment fees and any nominal health and/or student activity fees, due at the time of registration. If you plan to attend a CSU or UC: Pay a nonrefundable deposit for freshmen tuition to the college you plan to attend, if required, to hold your spot. Determine if you are eligible for priority registration as a foster youth. Ask the school you plan to attend for more information. Determine if you are eligible for priority registration as a foster youth. Ask the school you plan to attend for more information. Determine if you are eligible for priority registrat	scholarships. Get coaching and feedback from your counselors.
November 15 for your EOP and scholarship applications. Apply to CSU (calstate.edu/apply) and/or UC (universityofcalifornia.edu/admissions). Have someone proofread your application. If you regularly updated your High School Planner, your course information will be automatically transferred to your application. Application deadline is November 30, unless otherwise noted. For foster youth, up to four CSU and four UC applications are free. Have your transcripts sent to requesting colleges. Make sure all the information is correct. Save one copy for yourself. Apply for on-campus housing ("dorms" or "residence halls") for each college campus that you are applying to and place your name on the waitlist, if needed. As a foster youth, you may have priority access to on-campus housing. Check about the payments and deposits for college. Some colleges require an upfront deposit for on-campus housing and only accept checks or credit cards. Ask for assistance to pay these, if needed. Apply for the EOP (Educational Opportunity Program) when you submit your CSU or UC application. DCFS Resources Use the TILP to create college and career goals. Complete any financial aid verification steps, if needed. Accessing Support Programs If attending a community college, apply for EOPS and NextUp (also known as CAFYES & only available at certain colleges). Determine if the college has a foster youth support program at student.cacollegepathways.org/find-campus-support-programs. Utilize free campus resources like tutoring, disability services, mental health counseling, and/or resources for parenting youth. Enrollment and Fees If you plan to attend a CSU or UC: Pay a nonrefundable deposit for freshmen tuition to the college you plan to attend, if required, to hold your spot. Determine if you are eligible for priority registration. If you plan to attend a CSU or UC: Pay a nonrefundable deposit for freshmen tuition to the college you plan to attend, if required, to hold your spot. Determine if you are eligible for priority	☐ Request at least 3 letters of recommendation be written by
Apply to CSU (calstate.edu/apply) and/or UC (universityofcalifornia.edu/admissions). Have someone proofread your application. If you regularly updated your High School Planner, your course information will be automatically transferred to your application. Application deadline is November 30, unless otherwise noted. For foster youth, up to four CSU and four UC applications are free. Have your transcripts sent to requesting colleges. Make sure all the information is correct. Save one copy for yourself. Apply for on-campus housing ("dorms" or "residence halls") for each college campus that you are applying to and place your name on the waitlist, if needed. As a foster youth, you may have priority access to on-campus housing. Check about the payments and deposit for college. Some colleges require an upfront deposit for on-campus housing and only accept checks or credit cards. Ask for assistance to pay these, if needed. Apply for the EOP (Educational Opportunity Program) when you submit your CSU or UC application. DCFS Resources	November 15 for your EOP and scholarship applications.	11.4
(university of california.edu/admissions). Have someone proofread your application. If you regularly updated your High School Planner, your course information will be automatically transferred to your application. Application deadline is November 30, unless otherwise noted. For foster youth, up to four CSU and four UC applications are free. □ Have your transcripts sent to requesting colleges. Make sure all the information is correct. Save one copy for yourself. □ Apply for on-campus housing ("dorms" or "residence halls") for each college campus that you are applying to and place your name on the waitlist, if needed. As a foster youth, you may have priority access to on-campus housing. □ Check about the payments and deposits for college. Some colleges require an upfront deposit for on-campus housing and only accept checks or credit cards. Ask for assistance to pay these, if needed. □ Apply for the EOP (Educational Opportunity Program) when you submit your CSU or UC application. □ Connect with ILP about college tours or activities. □ If attending a community college, apply for EOPS and NextUp (also known as CAFYES & only available at certain colleges). □ Determine if the college has a foster youth support program at student.cacollegepathways.org/find-campus-support-programs. □ Utilize free campus resources like tutoring, disability services, mental health counseling, and/or resources for parenting youth. □ Determine if you are eligible for priority registration as a current or former foster youth and follow the required steps. See the website of the school you plan to attend a CSU or UC: □ Pay a nonrefundable deposit for freshmen tuition to the college you plan to attend, if required, to hold your spot. □ Determine if you are eligible for priority registration as a foster youth. Ask the school you plan to attend for more information. □ Pay a nonrefundable deposit for freshmen tuition to the college you plan to attend, if required, to hold your spot. □ Determine if you are eligible for priority registration a	☐ Apply to CSU (calstate.edu/apply) and/or UC
School Planner, your course information will be automatically transferred to your application. Application deadline is November 30, unless otherwise noted. For foster youth, up to four CSU and four UC applications are free. Have your transcripts sent to requesting colleges. Make sure all the information is correct. Save one copy for yourself. Apply for on-campus housing ("dorms" or "residence halls") for each college campus that you are applying to and place your name on the waitlist, if needed. As a foster youth, you may have priority access to on-campus housing. Check about the payments and deposits for college. Some colleges require an upfront deposit for on-campus housing and only accept checks or credit cards. Ask for assistance to pay these, if needed. Apply for the EOP (Educational Opportunity Program) when you submit your CSU or UC application. DCFS Resources Use the TILP to create college and career goals. Galso known as CAFYES & only available at certain colleges.
School Planner, your course information will be automatically transferred to your application. Application deadline is November 30, unless otherwise noted. For foster youth, up to four CSU and four UC applications are free. Have your transcripts sent to requesting colleges. Make sure all the information is correct. Save one copy for yourself. Apply for on-campus housing ("dorms" or "residence halls") for each college campus that you are applying to and place your name on the waitlist, if needed. As a foster youth, you may have priority access to on-campus housing. Check about the payments and deposits for college. Some colleges require an upfront deposit for on-campus housing and only accept checks or credit cards. Ask for assistance to pay these, if needed. Apply for the EOP (Educational Opportunity Program) when you submit your CSU or UC application. DCFS Resources Use the TILP to create college and career goals.
November 30, unless otherwise noted. For foster youth, up to four CSU and four UC applications are free. ☐ Have your transcripts sent to requesting colleges. Make sure all the information is correct. Save one copy for yourself. ☐ Apply for on-campus housing ("dorms" or "residence halls") for each college campus that you are applying to and place your name on the waitlist, if needed. As a foster youth, you may have priority access to on-campus housing. ☐ Check about the payments and deposits for college. Some colleges require an upfront deposit for on-campus housing and only accept checks or credit cards. Ask for assistance to pay these, if needed. ☐ Apply for the EOP (Educational Opportunity Program) when you submit your CSU or UC application. ☐ DCFS Resources ☐ Use the TILP to create college and career goals. Student.cacollegepathways.org/find-campus-support-programs. Student.cacollegepathways.org/find-campus-support-programs. Utilize free campus resources like tutoring, disability services, mental health counseling, and/or resources for parenting youth. Enrollment and Fees If you plan to attend a community college: Determine if you are eligible for priority registration as a current or former foster youth and follow the required steps. See the website of the school you plan to attend for more information. If you plan to attend a CSU or UC: ☐ Pay a nonrefundable deposit for freshmen tuition to the college you plan to attend, if required, to hold your spot. ☐ Determine if you are eligible for priority registration as a foster youth. Ask the school you plan to attend for more information. ☐ Determine if you are eligible for priority registration. If you plan to attend a CSU or UC: ☐ Pay a nonrefundable deposit for freshmen tuition to the college you plan to attend for more information. ☐ Determine if you are eligible for priority registration as a foster youth. Ask the school you plan to attend for more information. ☐ Connect with ILP about college tours or activities.		•
Utilize free campus resources like tutoring, disability services, mental health counseling, and/or resources for parenting youth.
Have your transcripts sent to requesting colleges. Make sure all the information is correct. Save one copy for yourself. Apply for on-campus housing ("dorms" or "residence halls") for each college campus that you are applying to and place your name on the waitlist, if needed. As a foster youth, you may have priority access to on-campus housing. Check about the payments and deposits for college. Some colleges require an upfront deposit for on-campus housing and only accept checks or credit cards. Ask for assistance to pay these, if needed. Apply for the EOP (Educational Opportunity Program) when you submit your CSU or UC application. Determine if you are eligible for priority registration as a current or former foster youth and follow the required steps. See the website of the school you plan to attend for more information. Pay enrollment and Fees Tyou plan to attend a community college: Determine if you are eligible for priority registration as a current or former foster youth and follow the required steps. See the website of the school you plan to attend for more information. Pay enrollment and Fees Tyou plan to attend a CSU or UC: Pay a nonrefundable deposit for freshmen tuition to the college you plan to attend, if required, to hold your spot. Determine if you are eligible for priority registration as a foster youth. Ask the school you plan to attend for more information. Determine if you are eligible for priority registration as a foster youth. Ask the school you plan to attend for more information. Determine if you are eligible for priority registration as a foster youth. Ask the school you plan to attend a CSU or UC: Determine if you are eligible for priority registration as a foster youth. Ask the school you plan to attend for more information. Determine if you are eligible for priority registration as a foster youth. Ask the school you plan to attend for more information. Determine if you are eligible for priority registration as a foster youth. Ask the school you plan the information is correct. Save one copy for yourself. Apply for on-campus housing ("dorms" or "residence halls") for each college campus that you are applying to and place your name on the waitlist, if needed. As a foster youth, you may have priority access to on-campus housing. Check about the payments and deposits for college. Some colleges require an upfront deposit for on-campus housing and only accept checks or credit cards. Ask for assistance to pay these, if needed. Apply for the EOP (Educational Opportunity Program) when you submit your CSU or UC application. ■ Connect with ILP about college tours or activities. ■ Connect with ILP about college tours or activities. ■ Request a 90-Day Transition Plan to prepare for the transition to college.	· · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · ·
Apply for on-campus housing ("dorms" or "residence halls") for each college campus that you are applying to and place your name on the waitlist, if needed. As a foster youth, you may have priority access to on-campus housing. □ Check about the payments and deposits for college. Some colleges require an upfront deposit for on-campus housing and only accept checks or credit cards. Ask for assistance to pay these, if needed. □ Apply for the EOP (Educational Opportunity Program) when you submit your CSU or UC application. ■ Connect with ILP about college tours or activities. □ Connect with ILP about college tours or activities. □ Request a 90-Day Transition Plan to prepare for the transition to college.
Determine if you are eligible for priority registration as a current or former foster youth and follow the required steps. See the website of the school you plan to attend for more information. Determine if you are eligible for priority registration as a current or former foster youth and follow the required steps. See the website of the school you plan to attend for more information. Determine if you are eligible for priority registration as a current or former foster youth and follow the required steps. See the website of the school you plan to attend for more information. Pay enrollment fees and any nominal health and/or student activity fees, due at the time of registration. Pay a nonrefundable deposit for freshmen tuition to the college you plan to attend, if required, to hold your spot. Determine if you are eligible for priority registration as a foster youth. Ask the school you plan to attend for more information. Determine if you are eligible for priority registration as a current or former foster youth and follow the required steps. See the website of the school you plan to attend for more information. Pay enrollment fees and any nominal health and/or student activity fees, due at the time of registration. Pay a nonrefundable deposit for freshmen tuition to the college you plan to attend, if required, to hold your spot. Determine if you are eligible for priority registration as a foster youth. Ask the school you plan to attend for more information. Determine if you are eligible for priority registration activity fees, due at the time of registration. Pay a nonrefundable deposit for freshmen tuition to the college you plan to attend of your plan to attend of your plan to attend activity fees, due at the time of registration. Determine if you are eligible for priority registration. Pay a nonrefundable deposit for freshmen tuition to the college you plan to attend activity fees, due at the time of registration. Pay a nonrefundable deposit for freshmen tuition t	1,7 or former foster youth and follow the required steps. See the website of the school you plan to attend for more information. Check about the payments and deposits for college. Some colleges require an upfront deposit for on-campus housing and only accept checks or credit cards. Ask for assistance to pay these, if needed. Apply for the EOP (Educational Opportunity Program) when you submit your CSU or UC application. DCFS Resources Use the TILP to create college and career goals. Or former foster youth and follow the required steps. See the website of the school you plan to attend for more information. Pay enrollment fees and any nominal health and/or student activity fees, due at the time of registration. If you plan to attend a CSU or UC: Pay a nonrefundable deposit for freshmen tuition to the college you plan to attend, if required, to hold your spot. Determine if you are eligible for priority registration as a foster youth. Ask the school you plan to attend for more information. Connect with ILP about college tours or activities. Request a 90-Day Transition Plan to prepare for the transition to college.
may have priority access to on-campus housing. □ Check about the payments and deposits for college. Some colleges require an upfront deposit for on-campus housing and only accept checks or credit cards. Ask for assistance to pay these, if needed. □ Apply for the EOP (Educational Opportunity Program) when you submit your CSU or UC application. □ Pay enrollment fees and any nominal health and/or student activity fees, due at the time of registration. If you plan to attend a CSU or UC: □ Pay a nonrefundable deposit for freshmen tuition to the college you plan to attend, if required, to hold your spot. □ Determine if you are eligible for priority registration as a foster youth. Ask the school you plan to attend for more information. □ Determine if you are eligible for priority registration as a foster youth. Ask the school you plan to attend for more information. □ Determine if you are eligible for priority registration as a foster youth. Ask the school you plan to attend for more information. □ Determine if you are eligible for priority registration as a foster youth. Ask the school you plan to attend for more information. □ Determine if you are eligible for priority registration as a foster youth. Ask the school you plan to attend for more information.		or former foster youth and follow the required steps. See the □ Check about the payments and deposits for college. Some colleges require an upfront deposit for on-campus housing and only accept checks or credit cards. Ask for assistance to pay these, if needed. □ Apply for the EOP (Educational Opportunity Program) when you submit your CSU or UC application. □ Determine if you are eligible for priority registration as a foster youth. Ask the school you plan to attend for more information. □ Determine if you are eligible to priority registration as a foster youth. Ask the school you plan to attend for more information. □ Determine if you are eligible for priority registration as a foster youth. Ask the school you plan to attend for more information. □ Connect with ILP about college tours or activities. □ Request a 90-Day Transition Plan to prepare for the transition to college.
Check about the payments and deposits for conege. Some colleges require an upfront deposit for on-campus housing and only accept checks or credit cards. Ask for assistance to pay these, if needed. □ Apply for the EOP (Educational Opportunity Program) when you submit your CSU or UC application. □ Determine if you are eligible for priority registration as a foster youth. Ask the school you plan to attend for more information. □ Connect with ILP about college tours or activities. □ Use the TILP to create college and career goals. □ Request a 90-Day Transition Plan to prepare for the transition to college.		☐ Pay enrollment fees and any nominal health and/or student only accept checks or credit cards. Ask for assistance to pay these, if needed. □ Apply for the EOP (Educational Opportunity Program) when you submit your CSU or UC application. □ Determine if you are eligible for priority registration as a foster youth. Ask the school you plan to attend for more information. □ Determine if you are eligible for priority registration as a foster youth. Ask the school you plan to attend for more information. □ Connect with ILP about college tours or activities. □ Request a 90-Day Transition Plan to prepare for the transition to college. these, if needed. Apply for the EOP (Educational Opportunity Program) when you submit your CSU or UC application. Pay a nonrefundable deposit for freshmen tuition to the college you plan to attend, if required, to hold your spot. Determine if you are eligible for priority registration as a foster youth. Ask the school you plan to attend for more information. DCFS Resources Use the TILP to create college and career goals. Request a 90-Day Transition Plan to prepare for the transition to college.
Apply for the EOP (Educational Opportunity Program) when you submit your CSU or UC application. you plan to attend, if required, to hold your spot. Determine if you are eligible for priority registration as a foster youth. Ask the school you plan to attend for more information.
Determine if you are eligible for priority registration as a foster youth. Ask the school you plan to attend for more information. Determine if you are eligible for priority registration as a foster youth. Ask the school you plan to attend for more information. Determine if you are eligible for priority registration as a foster youth. Ask the school you plan to attend for more information. Determine if you are eligible for priority registration as a foster youth. Ask the school you plan to attend for more information. Determine if you are eligible for priority registration as a foster youth. Ask the school you plan to attend for more information. Determine if you are eligible for priority registration as a foster youth. Ask the school you plan to attend for more information. Determine if you are eligible for priority registration as a foster youth. Ask the school you plan to attend for more information. Determine if you are eligible for priority registration as a foster youth. Ask the school you plan to attend for more information. Determine if you are eligible for priority registration as a foster youth. Ask the school you plan to attend for more information. Determine if you are eligible for priority registration as a foster youth. Ask the school you plan to attend for more information. you submit your CSC of CC application. youth. Ask the school you plan to attend for more information. DCFS Resources Use the TILP to create college and career goals. youth. Ask the school you plan to attend for more information. Connect with ILP about college tours or activities. Request a 90-Day Transition Plan to prepare for the transition to college.
DCFS Resources □ Connect with ILP about college tours or activities. □ Use the TILP to create college and career goals. □ Request a 90-Day Transition Plan to prepare for the transition to college.	you submit your CSO of OC application.
☐ Use the TILP to create college and career goals. ☐ Request a 90-Day Transition Plan to prepare for the transition to college.
Tr
☐ Connect youth to ilponline.org. ☐ Apply for graduation expenses through ILP.
□ Apply to attend Celebration I or II. □ Refer to ILP or ITSP (ages 16-21) & participate in Teen Club.
☐ Gather vital documents (i.e. CA ID, birth certificate, SS card, Medi-Cal card) & upload securely (i.e. ifoster.org, google.drive.com)					