Use your CalFresh EBT and WIC Checks at Farmers' Markets
 To find a Farmers' Market, visit www.FMfinder.org
 To find a WIC office, visit <https://m.wic.ca.gov/Clinics/ClinicSearch.aspx>

What is applicant's living situation? Who does applicant purchase and prepare food with? Use this to determine household.
Does household meet the income eligibility to the left? If so, go to next question.
Does household include US citizens and/or lawful permanent residents (LPRs)? If so, go to next question.
Does anyone in household receive Supplemental Security Income (SSI) in California? If so, they are NOT eligible for CalFresh benefits (others in household still may be).
Is anyone in household provided more than half (11 or more) of their meals per week from another source? If so, they may NOT be eligible for CalFresh.
Is anyone in the household a college student? If so, please see back for additional eligibility requirements.
Does anyone in the household have a child 0-5 years of age? If so, also let them know about the WIC program.
Is anyone in the household over 60 or disabled? If so, let them know that the county may be able to determine special deductions.

If you are a college student between the ages of 18 and 49, and are enrolled in at least 6 units (or half-time as defined by your campus), you also need to meet AT LEAST ONE of the following student eligibility bullet points:

- Working and getting paid for at least 20 hours per week OR a total of 80 hours a month on average
- Approved (or awarded or accepted) for federal or state work study, anticipates working, and have not refused a work assignment (can still be eligible even if a work study job has not begun or is not currently available)
- Students attending CSU or UC, receiving Cal Grant A OR B, and falling within the following qualifications: un-married; AND 25 years of age or younger; AND household income less than $50,000
- Enrolled in a state funded program that increases employability (EOP, EOPS, WIOA, DSPS, CARE, UC McNair, Puente Project, or ME-SA)
- Enrolled in a program that increases employability for current and former foster youth (Guardian Scholars, FYSI, CAFYES, ETV or Extended Foster Care) ***
- Exerting parental control over a dependent household member under the age of 6 OR between the age of 6 and 12 with no adequate childcare (as determined by the county on a case-by-case basis) OR are a single parent of a dependent household member under the age of 12
- Participating in the CalFresh Employment and Training Program (CFET) or Job Opportunities and Basic Skills (JOBS), or be a recipient of CalWORKs or Aid to Families with Dependent Children (AFDC)

Other things to consider:

- If 17 or younger or 50 or older OR enrolled in less than 6 units, students only need to meet basic eligibility
- Students who live with their parents must be 22 years of age or older in order to apply as an individual household
- International, DACA, and DREAM students have been shown to not be eligible, even with a work VISA/SSN
- Out-of-state students can still be eligible for CalFresh if they are residing in California for the school year
- Students who are deemed disabled by the state, a doctor, or the Social Security Administration, only need to meet basic eligibility
